

Selectmen's Meeting
Special Meeting held on July 1, 2008

Special Meeting	A Special Meeting of the Board of Selectmen was held on Tuesday, July 1, 2008, at the Voluntown Town Hall. Mr. Grimm, First Selectman, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.
Selectmen present	Gilbert G. Grimm, Ronald J. Millovitsch
Town Officials Present	None
Citizens Present	Thomas H. Wilber; Patricia Thevenet
Citizens Comments Thomas H. Wilber	Mr. Wilber presented a notice from the Connecticut State Library advising him that the restoration of the original town map was complete. The BOS will contact Dr. Mark H. Jones, State Archivist, to make arrangements for the town to pick up its copy. As agreed in June of 2007, the town will pay 90% of the restoration costs and the Historical Society will pay the remaining 10%. The BOS thanked Mr. Wilber and the Historical Society for their efforts in having the map restored for future generations.
Old Business	None
New Business Girard Family	Mr. Grimm noted that he spoke to the priest at the Catholic Church in regards to the Girard family who lost two members to drowning this week. The priest indicated that the church will be helping the family through this crisis and Mr. Grimm will be in touch with him to coordinate any help the town is able to offer.
Any Other Business	None
Adjournment Motion	A motion was made (Ronald Millovitsch, Gilbert Grimm) to adjourn the meeting. Unanimously voted. The meeting adjourned at 6:42 p.m.
